AUL customers go online for Form 5500
Switch expected to improve efficiency, simplify process

INDIANAPOLIS – 401(k) plan sponsors dreaming of an easier way to access Form 5500 can realize that dream. The Retirement Services division of American United Life Insurance Company® (AUL), a OneAmerica company, is pleased to announce that its customers now have online access to Form 5500, an annual report that the federal government requires plan sponsors of most retirement plans to file.

“We’re delighted to offer our customers access to this form signature-ready,” said Angela Trefethen, AUL’s Retirement Services Division Vice President of Client Management Services. “We’ve eliminated the paper, the wait and the risk of losing the form in the mail while improving efficiency and saving our plan sponsors valuable time.”

Traditionally, plan sponsors had to wait for the form – that could be up to 75 pages in length – to come in the mail. Online access is expected to improve the report delivery by creating an ‘at your fingertips’ document. It also creates a more efficient environment for submitting questions, allowing access to auditors, or making changes. Since its effective date in May, AUL has already published 3300 Form 5500 reports.

The Department of Labor (DOL) has proposed requirements for plans to file electronically beginning with January 1, 2007 plan years to be filed in 2008.
